

I love listening to K-LOVE. I am 56. The music and venue appeals to all ages and contains no offensive language/material. It is my community's only progressive Christian radio station. It has a very positive impact on teenagers and give them something to think about. There is no other alternative station that offers what K-LOVE does.